Angela Locke, author of seven novels and non-fiction books, and a renowned Creative Writing lecturer, has been running highly successful Writing Retreats at the Argyll Hotel on Iona for almost twenty years, while international photographer Sir Malcolm MacGregor, chief of the clan Gregor, has worked across the world in war zones and in peacetime, and specialises in photographing the Hebrides. His book 'Iona, Mull and Staffa', is justifiably popular with so many who love this special area of Scotland. You can book this course through the Argyll Hotel direct. It is preceded by a Writers' Retreat led by Angela Locke from 25th-30th May 2019. Contact the Argyll hotel for details, see panel opposite.
